

Health Care Reform

A Catholic Ethical Perspective

J. Brian Hehir, theologian and social ethicist, is the Parker Gilbert Montgomery Professor of the Practice of Religion in Public Life, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. He is also the Secretary for Health Care and Social Services in the Archdiocese of Boston. His research and writing focus on ethics and the role of religion in American society. He has served on the faculty of Georgetown University and the Harvard Divinity School. His writings include: Social Values and Public Policy: A Contribution from a Religious tradition; Catholicism and Democracy; The Moral Measurement of War: A Tradition of Continuity and Change; Military Intervention and National Sovereignty.

Thursday, October 22, 2009

Carondelet Center

1890 Randolph Avenue

Saint Paul, MN 55105

7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the Sisters of Saint Joseph, Catholic Health Association of MN, Minnesota Catholic Conference, and Catholic Charities